RE: Collymore v. City of New York
Docket No. 16 CIV 8270 (LTS)(OTW)

Dear Judge Wang:

I am writing to request a one week extension for the parties' joint status letter. As the Court is aware Mrs. Saint Fort has been out of the office until today, and in the interim I have depositions scheduled today until Friday in the matter of Gittens v. City of New York before Judge Ramos. Accordingly, I am respectfully requesting a week's extension to resolve some of the discovery disputes that I have previously brought to the Court's attention. Again, between Mrs. Saint Fort's schedule and the holidays the parties have not had an opportunity to meaningfully resolve their issues. Defendants do not consent to the request.

Respectfully submitted,

Special Hagan, Esq.

Special Hagan, Esq.

Counsel for Plaintiff
Robin Collymore

Cc Dominique Saint-Fort, Esq.
Counsel for Defendants

Application DENIED. Counsel were expected to work together in good faith to submit a joint status letter and joint agenda. Because Defendants do not consent to the extension request, Defendants shall submit their own status letter and proposed agenda by close of business, January 14, 2020, which will detail the parties' efforts to meet and confer prior to Thursday's conference. Plaintiff shall have until close of business, January 15, 2020 to submit a response, if any, to Defendants' letter. The Court will discuss the parties' issues raised in the status letter(s) at the January 16, 2020 conference.
SO ORDERED.
